Affiliate-Marketing Patrick Mark Bormann 2019-03-06 Patrick Bormann untersucht anhand realer Daten eines Bildungsdienstleisters, inwiefern der Klickpfad einer Affiliate-Marketingkampagne im Rahmen einer Mehrkanalstrategie (soziale Medien, Suchmaschinenwerbung) gesteuert werden kann. Neben einem weitreichenden Einblick in das Affiliate-Marketing selbst, konzipiert er den Prozess des Affiliate-Marketing und stellt den Klickpfad der Nutzer in den Schwerpunkt betriebswirtschaftlicher Analysen. Ferner zeigt er mithilfe einer kausalanalytischen Methodik und eines Gruppenvergleichs, dass die Steuerung des Klickpfads durch mehrere Facetten der Suchmaschinenwerbung und diverser sozialer Medien zusehends komplexer wird.

Owning the World of Ideas Matthew David 2015-08-17 Formally, ownership of ideas is legally impossible, and can never be globally secured. Yet, in very real and significant ways these limits have been undone. In principle, ideas cannot be owned, yet, undoing the distinction between ideas and tangible manifestations, the distinction which underpins the principle, allows the principle to hold even whilst its meaning is hollowed out. Post-Cold War global network capitalism is premised upon regulatory structures designed to enforce deregulation in global markets and production, but at the same time to enforce global regulation of property and intellectual property in particular. However, this roll-out has not been without resistance and limitations. Globalization, the affordances of digital networks, and contradiction within capitalism itself - between private property and free markets - promote and undo global IP expansion. In this book David and Halbert map the rise of global IP protectionism, debunk the key justifications given for IPRs, dismiss the arguments put forward for global extension and harmonization; and suggest that roll-back, suspension, and even simply the bi-passing of IP in practice offer better solutions for promoting innovation and meeting human needs.

The Foodways of Hawai'i Hi'ilei Julia Hobart 2019-10-31

Offering diverse perspectives on Hawai'i's food system, this book addresses themes of place and identity across time. From early Western contact to the present day, the way in which people in Hawai'i grow, import, and consume their food has shifted in response to the pressures of colonialism, migration, new technologies, and globalization. Because of Hawai'i's history of agricultural abundance, its geographic isolation in the Pacific Ocean, and its heavy reliance on imported foods today, it offers a rich case study for understanding how food systems develop in-place. In so doing, the contributors implicitly and explicitly complicate the narrative of the "local," which has until recently dominated much of the existing scholarship on Hawai'i's foodways. With topics spanning GMO activism, agricultural land use trends, customary access and fishing rights, poi production, and the dairy industry, this volume reveals how "local food" is emplaced through dynamic and complex articulations of history, politics, and economic change. This book was originally published as a special issue of Food, Culture, and Society.
