The Informed Reading Teacher-Bill Harp 2005 Based on the idea that the best literacy teacher is the informed literacy teacher, this new book provides an accessible presentation of research and the teaching methods that stem from it. By emphasizing assessment and evaluation along with literacy skills and strategies as the basis for effective literacy teaching, chapters explain more than what to do in a literacy classroom--they help you understand why to do it. The book gives readers an understanding of the nature of reading and writing, equips them with the materials to teach, and develops in them the vital ability to select from this knowledge the "best practices" for meeting children's individual needs. For parents, teachers, and child care specialists of elementary school reading students.

Interventions That Work-Linda J. Dorn 2009-06-09 Applying principles from Linda and Carla's latest book, Interventions That Work: A Comprehensive Intervention Model for Reversing Reading Failure, their DVD series, Interventions that Work illustrates how teachers use data to implement research-based interventions—from kindergarten to eighth grade—that transform struggling students into successful readers and writers. The interventions are part of the authors' Comprehensive Intervention Model (CIM), a design for preventing reading failure in the early grades and reversing reading failure in the upper grades. The Guided Reading Plus (GRP) collection includes two disks of classroom video, lesson plans, and a wealth of resources along with a facilitator's guide for training and implementing the small group intervention. The GRP video collection is structured to provide training and support for teachers in learning about Guided Reading Plus as an intervention for struggling readers and as an intervention for their school's Response to Intervention (RTI) plan. Features: Provides a small-group intervention, based on the authors' Comprehension for Intervention Model (CIM) ,for students in grades three and beyond who are lagging behind their peers in reading. Consists of a series of 30-minute daily reading and writing lessons designed to promote students' knowledge of genre and text structures through in-depth units of study. Includes opportunities for teachers to collect systematic data for progress monitoring. Guides teachers in implementing explicit teaching and concrete examples to assist struggling readers to develop efficient strategies for problem solving in texts and to comprehend the message at deeper levels. Features two disks: Disk One contains supplemental materials such as the Facilitators' Guide, Power Point Presentation slides, guide sheet of lesson components, planners, Text Map/Writing Guide, and mentor texts for personal narrative. Disk Two contains CFG video lessons in reading and writing based on a unit of study for personal narrative texts. This disk is divided into four chapters with each chapter representing a unique phase with a total of 13 episodes under the phases. The episodes take place over a period of four weeks.

Studying the Individual Pupil-Verna White 1958 Stressing the need for study of the individual child, this book emphasizes an interdisciplinary approach, demonstrating the necessity for cooperation among teachers, school personnel, allied professional personnel, and laymen. Therefore, while the text has been written for pre-service and in-service elementary- and secondary-school teachers, it will be highly useful to all those allied with the teacher. The book outlines practical methods by which teachers, without, special training, can make studies and interpret the results as a basis for procedure. Points are amply illustrated by a profusion of actual case studies. Cautions are spelled out, with special stress on the need for school personnel who know when to refer pupils to specialists for help.
