More about the book: The book begins with a chapter entitled, "Introduction to the Bible," which tells how the books of the Bible came to be written and collected into the form we have today. You can see a preview of that chapter in the "Look Inside" feature above. Here's a sample from the section on Genesis: Genesis is the title given by the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament) translators, taken from 2:4a, "This is the book of the geneleos of heaven and earth;" geneleos means "origin, generations." The Jews referred to the book by the first word in the Hebrew text, Bereshith, meaning "In the beginning." Moses gives a brief historical account of events from the time of creation up until the time the Israelites entered into Egypt. Included are such well-known characters as Adam, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph. The book of Genesis covers about 2000 years of history. Heaven and earth were created _____; creation occurs throughout _____ days, and then God rests. Man is placed in the Garden of Eden and the creation of woman is discussed; she is to be a _____ for man. As a result of the temptation by _____, man is destined to a life of hardship. The birth of Cain and Abel is followed by the death of _____. Chapter 5 contains the generations of _____. The wickedness of the world is contrasted with the righteousness of _____. If you have any questions, you can email the author at Bob@BibleLessons.com.
