Contemplative Youth Ministry-Mark Yaconelli 2011-03-22 "Contemplative Youth Ministry is refreshing rain for dry youth workers and barren youth ministries. More than the same old youth ministry tips and tricks, it gives principles and practices to soak in God's grace, love, and power. I wish I had read it 15 years ago." - Kara Powell, Ph.D., executive director, Center for Youth Ministry and Family Ministry, Fuller Theological Seminary "Mark invites readers to be encountered by the presence of Jesus who is always near. This book is transparent about the challenges that churches and families face as they desire to be effective in youth ministry. The book is filled with the honest stories of different kinds of youth ministries representing the breadth of Christianity in the United States. I heartily endorse Contemplative Youth Ministry as a rich encounter with the souls of youth and adults whose lives have been transformed by our very present God." - Bill Kees, director of youth ministries, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) "Mark Yaconelli not only reminds us of some of the long-forgotten pathways of faith, he shares with us how it actually looks when men and women who love God practice it with young people. I especially appreciate Mark's optimism in his perspective of today's kids, for his insights are grounded in God's view of them." - Chap Clark, Ph.D., associate professor of youth, family, and culture, Fuller Theological Seminary "Mark Yaconelli was experimenting with contemplative youth ministry practices before contemplative youth ministry practices became cool. This book has about it the unique air of authenticity. He shares with us in these pages his own journey as a youth worker who actually believes that God's still small voice speaks louder than the roaring windstorm of our busy youth ministry calendars. It's a book about creating for our students places of silence and opening up spaces for God to speak." - Duffy Robbins, professor of youth ministry, Eastern University; author of Enjoy the Silence and This Way to Youth Ministry "Mark Yaconelli has emerged as one of youth ministry's most provocative 'voices in the wilderness,' calling us back to our theological taproots: The contemplative practices that bind our lives to the life of Christ. If Mark's research has taught us anything, it's that these practices do not cause youth ministry to take flight into a spiritual never-never land; rather they anchor young people—and their churches—in the fertile soil of Christian tradition, in the nitty-gritty of daily life, and in the explosive transformation that awaits us when we wait upon God." - Kenda Creasy Dean, parent, pastor, and professor of youth, Princeton Theological Seminary; author of Practicing Passion: Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church

How to Pray the Right Prayers and Get Right Answers in Every Situation-Christian Benjamin 2019-05-07 "Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God..." Philippians 4:6-7;"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" James 5:16;"Pray without ceasing" 1 Thess. 5:17;- There is no activity in life so important as that of prayer. Every other activity depends upon prayer for its best efficiency - M. E. Andross;- Prayer is not learned in a classroom but in the closet - E. M. Bounds;- I would rather teach one man to pray than ten men to preach - Charles Spurgeon;- The more you pray, the less you'll panic- Rick Warren;- Sincere and genuine prayer challenges and frustrates the activities of the Devil - Christian Benjamin;- Prayers that are required for great works are not prayers prayed in the open but those prayed in the closet!"And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way" Mark 10:46-52 This is the story of Blind Bartimaeus. In his blindness, Jesus still asked him the pertinent question? What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? Without hesitation, the blind man gave him an answer because he knew what he wanted! When he made the right request, at the right time to the right person, he got the right answer immediately. You will only get the right answers when you make the right requests (prayers) to the right person, following rightly prescribed rules. Had Bartimaeus asked for something else, that exactly is what he would have gotten. This book is all about that. It x-rays how you should "organize" your prayers in order to get the right answers. UNDERSTANDING THE FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM "Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss ..." James 4:3 Praying amiss - Praying wrongly; asking wrongly or for the wrong purposes! This explains why you do not receive answers to your prayers. Your effort therefore should be on finding out how to pray aright! This book teaches that prayer is not a gift of the Spirit and therefore an art that ought to be learned in order to use the abilities that it offers effectively. "And it came to pass, that...one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray..." Luke 11:1 Therefore you must understand that the answer to your prayer: Is connected to your faith so you receive according to your faith Is connected to his will so you must pray according to his will Is connected to your believe so you receive what you believe. Is connected to the absence of doubt therefore you must pray without any element of doubt. Is connected to your attitude towards forgiving other people who sin against you therefore, If you do not forgive, you may not be forgiven and answers may continue to elude you. Is connected to your specificity. You must therefore be specific and clear in making your prayer. etc. The book offers specific prayer points that will help you pray targeted prayers over issues of life like your Health area, Divine Intervention etc. Get your copy now!

Jesus' Ministry of Liberation-Aaron Agorsor 2020-04-05 This book offers hope both to those in ministry and to those being ministered to. In the image depicting Jesus' encounter with the Blind Man Bartimaeus, we find a story set within the wider context of Jesus' final journey from Jericho to Jerusalem where death awaited him. Perhaps, that was the moment in which he should have been preoccupied with misery and anguish given that his death was imminent. Bartimaeus was too insignificant to be noticed by anyone with such a greater commitment and pre-occupation like Jesus had. It may seem absurd at first to think that Jesus would waste his time on someone like Bartimaeus when death awaited him, but it is in this bizarre situation that Jesus bore authentic witness to mercy. Jesus' encounter with the blind man Bartimaeus is exactly God's vision for humankind, namely, that ministers of God should not forget the vulnerable in the exercise of ministry because it is one of the greatest opportunities of witnessing to God's love. We who are in ministry can easily forget ourselves in ministering to people often at the margins of society. But this is what Jesus will not ignore as these moments unquestionably demonstrate God's unfailing compassion for all even in obscure circumstances. Like Bishop Barron once intimated, the Divine Mercy is a demanding summons to mission. The 21st century society is characterized by self-centeredness, selfishness, egoism and individualism. There is always the tendency to focus on the powerful and rich at the expense of the poor and vulnerable. Bartimaeus experienced rejection from his own people, but he always remained hopeful that someday his story would change. Indeed, his story did change. We may not be physically blind, but our blindness may be of a different shade or brand. Whatever our circumstances, our story is about to change now. Come to Jesus now.

The Story of Jesus' Baptism and Temptation-Bryan Davis 1997 This book retells the stories of Jesus' baptism and the temptation (Matthew 3:13-17; Mark 1:9-13; Luke 3:21-22; John 1:31-34). The Arch? Book series tells popular Bible stories through fun-to-read rhymes and bright illustrations. This well-loved series captures the attention of children, telling scripturally sound stories that are enjoyable and easy to remember.

Jesus Is the Question-Martin B. Copenhaver 2014-09-02 Contrary to some common assumptions, Jesus is not the ultimate Answer Man, but more like the Great Questioner. In the Gospels Jesus asks many more questions than he answers. To be precise, Jesus asks 307 questions. He is asked 183 of which he only answers 3. Asking questions was central to Jesus' life and teachings. In fact, for every question he answers directly he asks—literally—a hundred. Jesus is the Question considers the questions Jesus asks—what they tell us about Jesus and, more important, what our responses might say about what it means to follow Him. Through Jesus' questions, he modeled the struggle, the wondering, the thinking it through that helps us draw closer to God and better understand, not just the answer, but ourselves, our process and ultimately why questions are among Jesus' most profound gifts for a life of faith. A game-changer of a book.

I Want to See-Roc O'Connor 2017-09-19 It's a question we all ask, and in seeking the answer, theologian and famed composer Roc O'Connor invites us into the Gospel of Mark to sit by the side of the road with blind Bartimaeus. In his inspiring and lucid exploration of the gospel, O'Connor shows us how Bartimaeus sits not only at the roadside but at the center of everything Mark wants us to know about being a disciple of Jesus. Bartimaeus knows he is blind and living in poverty and despair. And in knowing this, he cries out for help and ends up following Jesus on the Path to Life. In the same way, says O'Connor, Mark tells us that we too are at a crossroads and it is only by recognizing our own inner blindness, our own fear, anger, and shame, our own need for healing, that we become willing to look up and call to Jesus. This powerful, insightful, prayerful, and very hopeful book invites us to see that the parts of ourselves we most want to hide from are the very things that open to us the Path to Life, to joyous life in Christ. Enough Is Enough-Felix Akintunde-Emmanuel 2019-07-19 Nonsense is an affliction that has overstayed its welcome in your life. Nonsense is an issue of long continuance. Nonsense is a prolonged battle. Nonsense is a stubborn problem. Nonsense is something that does not make sense. Nonsense is the absence of sense. When you are going through untold hardship or experiencing difficulties that have been programmed by the enemy. Nonsense is when you are suffering in the midst of plenty. Nonsense is an evil trend in your life. Nonsense is an evil family pattern operating in your life. Why must a need insult you or disgrace you and put you to shame before you get help? It's time to cry out for divine intervention. It's time to cry out for mercy like blind Bartimaeus. Sometimes prayer might not be enough to defeat every nonsense operating in your life, you might need to combine your prayers with relevant knowledge. Issues of life persist, when knowledge is absent.

Mark-Warren Carter 2020-04-03 The Academy of Parish Clergy 2020 Reference Book of the Year 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in Scripture 2020 Catholic Press Association third place award for best new religious book series This reading of Mark's Gospel engages this ancient text from the perspective of contemporary feminist concerns to expose and resist all forms of domination that prevent the full flourishing of all humans and all creation. Accordingly, it foregrounds the Gospel's constructions of gender in intersectionality with the visions, structures, practices, and personnel of Roman imperial power. This reading embraces a rich tradition of feminist scholarship on the Gospel, as well as masculinity studies, particularly pervasive hegemonic masculinity. Its politically engaged discussion of Mark's Gospel provides a resource for clergy, students, and laity concerned with contemporary constructions of gender, power, and a world in which all might experience fullness of life.
